CONGRATULATIONS, FAREWELL, THANK YOU & BEST WISHES JOEL

The James F. Miller Leadership Award was presented to Joel Young at the City Council Meeting July 10th by the League of Minnesota Cities (LMC). On hand to present the award were Luke Fischer, Justin Miller and Madison Hagenau, Executive Director, Vice-President and Engagement Director of the LMC, respectively.

The award had previously been announced at the LMC Annual Conference in Duluth, on June 22nd. Fischer and Miller pointed to Young's 32+ years of service to the Chatfield community, his involvement in various LMC and other activities, and his commitment to developing the Chatfield Center for the Arts as part of the basis of the award.

The Leadership Award is considered the League's highest honor for appointed city officials and is given annually in recognition for outstanding service. It is named for the League executive director James F. Miller, who retired in 2015 after 22 years of service. Congratulations Joel on this well deserved recognition.

Congratulations, farewell, and best wishes as you transition away from your post after more than 32 years of service into the next phase of your journey. While it is always hard to say goodbye, the City of Chatfield would like to thank you for your faithful service. Your demonstration of commitment, loyalty, professionalism, integrity and ethics has provided our city, staff and community with a first class example of exemplary leadership and public service.

Thank you for your service Administrator Young!
